

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE LAMB FESTIVAL WINNERS 2018

The lamb festival final was on Friday 22nd June when the winners of the photography and poetry competitions were announced.

Secondary school Photography winner :

Lydia Johnson year 11:

The judges said :

A brilliantly inventive take on the theme of Comedy of Errors, leaving us wondering about the real identity of the subject – and the second pair of hands! Insightful and creative technical ability is shown in the execution of this image. Brilliant!

Well done Lydia who won £100 in prize money.

Secondary school Poetry Competition winner:

Rwan Asde Year 10 - A poem ' A Birthday Thought'

The judges said:

The dimension of looking outside of yourself. Seeing someone elderly, considering what he has loved and lost on his birthday.

The judge was very impressed with Rwan's poem and her contribution to the poetry workshop that Rwan attended as part of the festival working with different poets.

Well done Rwan who won £100 in prize money

The other short listed entries that were put on display in the church were :

Rohat Unek - Primary Photography shortlist

The judges said:

It looks like these characters had so much fun in his photo-shoot. I wish I could have been there! Well done on the lighting and direction, you have produced a fantastic image

Well done to Rohat who had a great time at the evening and said he was going to enter again next year.

Ms Lipparelli – Open Category shortlist

The judges said:

A wonderful moment is captured here as a delicate spring flower is topped with snow. It illustrates the change of winter to spring but more so , highlights Nature’s Changing Course and global warming since it is becoming more normal for us to have snow in springtime.

Dilan Avcil - Secondary Category shortlist

The judges said:

A lovely image showcasing real insight into the play, The Comedy of Errors. Here we see one of the two sets of identical twins in the play coming face to face, the expression telling us that they have realised what has happened, A great picture.

Well done to all the students who took part in the competitions. This is the fourth year running that we have won the secondary category prize and our first win for the poetry prize. Details of the competition for next year are already on the Lamb Festival website page. Allsaintsedmonton.org.uk
